

COPA Football Store

Sales Representative - Amsterdam

(Fulltime M/V)

Are you passionate about fashion and football?
Are you an ambitious vendor with a keen eye for presentation?
Do you get energized by meeting people from all over the world?
Do you thrive working independently?
Then COPA is looking for you!

Job description:

- * You are responsible for the COPA Football Flagship Store together with your co-workers and you also maintain close contacts with your colleagues at HQ to provide them with feedback.
- * You are able to make people feel at home in our store with your enthusiasm and communicative skills which you also use to transmit the COPA brand experience.
- * You are responsible for an appealing in-store presentation.
- * You manage and optimize all operational and administrative processes.

Job requirements:

- * You have experience in a similar position, preferably in (sports/fashion) retail.
- * You are a positive person with a commercial mindset.
- * You thrive working independently.
- * You are flexible and thus also available to work during weekends.
- * You live in, or close to Amsterdam.
- * You are fluent in English and Dutch.
- * You can work in MS Office and Outlook.
- * You have experience in working with ERP and point of sale systems.

What we offer:

- * A challenging position in one of Europe's best football stores.
- * Market terms.
- * To work in a small and enthusiastic team.
- * To work responsibly and independently.

Does all of the above sound appealing and you recognize yourself in the job requirements, please send us your resume and CV.
